I am very happy to be a part of the University of Hawaii and to contribute my share in the growth and development of our university. A tidbit of knowledge and a little known fact, in 1999, I recruited the 17th best quarterback in our nation to come here to the University of Hawaii to play. He and his father agreed and somehow it took three months for Coach McMackin to get back to me. Patrick Nicely later decided to go to another school and we could have gotten him, if we, our university, had been more punctual. This story is known to many people in the sport's world in Hawaii and on the mainland.

I am also writing to congratulate the University of Hawaii and Coach McMackin for his football team's current success. Winning or becoming WAC co-champions and a very successful 10-3 season is nothing to sneeze about. You have my best and my wishes for a brighter future to come. You have my heart and blessings.

Sincerely,

His Imperial Majesty Yao Sui, Officially, by the history of China and by China's Han-Chinese Imperial succession, Emperor of the nation of China.
