Subject: Re: Do Not Proceed With The Sale Arms To Taiwan! - Letter Dated 12-20-2009

My dear Mr. President,

Do you ever wonder if an illegal President can govern a nation effectively? Are you truly a good and upright man? A Christian, perhaps? Are you a man out for material gains or are you a man of sound and solid principles? Do you know and fully understand the term "humanity," especially in relationship to human life? Do you value, as President and as the world's leader, the lives of people around the world now under your direct and indirect care? Do you believe in and subscribe to Christian principles and is human life sacred to you? As a world leader do you measure up to Christian standards? Do you care?

Would you try to be a bloody dictator and murder people by the thousands and lie to your nation and world as to what is and has been occurring?

How does it feel to take money not yours and not honestly earned? Blood money taken from the backs of the labors of people, common folk, and from nations by political manipulation and through force, commercial manipulation and by the military, through wars and by killing. Are you ever honest or have been in your entire life? Ever define life for what it is and not sugar coat the harsh reality of truth with blatant and bloody lies.

Two million people in Iraq were killed, murdered by the U.S. Military. Saddam did not have weapons of mass destruction and the U.N. Resolutions secured against his nation by ours occurred through fraud and the intentional creation of fraudulent facts. We are the big crooks here, lying to get our ways. Lying and cheating for our nation's own selfish perceived ends, economic advantage and survival.

When an honest and truly upright President finds himself to be in error, he corrects his ways. A crooked President will not have the wisdom or judgment to know what to do, especially since all of his life he has been that way. An illegal man, a blind man, a man of lawlessness who fears not God and considers himself to be a god. Above the law and untouchable. (Refer to JFK's speech to the press in the 1960s)

If a good nation such as ours, an upright nation, finds her errors, its people and President will and should bring about correction and upright changes. It is the true God's standards, which are the true standards for any nation to live by and follow. When you violate some principle and another is hurt, you go to that person or nation and apologize, asking that person or nation for their forgiveness and to compensate that person or nation for their losses.

One prays to God for forgiveness and promises that their sins will not be repeated or continued. One takes a new direction towards righteous conduct and lives a better life for him or herself and for all concerned. Does this sound like you?

In Iraq, we illegally invaded that nation and killed approximately two million of her people. We stage our own national tragedy (9-11) and blamed it on terrorist, when that was not truthfully the case. Are we a lawless nation, a nation of liars and thieves? Have we elected an inexperienced and incompetent leader in place of one who has over 30 years of working experience in the U.S. Senate on domestic affairs and foreign policy?

If no one advises you, would you be able to do a good job as President and be effective in solving our nation's domestic and international woes?

If people lie to you, your advisers for instance, and they bankrupt our nation, further, to a point of no return, where there is no end for our nation and the world, and they now urged you to take our nation to war against a nation like China (done, especially, to get our nation out of our debt obligations) and a fraudulent situations was once again created. Would you follow and obey their lead? Do you know the difference between the truth versus the lie and do you have the wisdom, guts, and integrity, knowledge too, to tell your advisers to f-off and that honest solutions are the only solutions to problems that we as a nation and world must face. And that solutions are readily available and currently at hand. Would you do this as President, even if you thought it meant your own life?

If one knows what one is doing and if one has knowledge gained through wisdom and by years of honest and upright experiences, one can call the shots. Is this not so? Is this person, perhaps, you?

Is war the only answer? Is it a Christian thing to do to make war unjustly against some primitive or smaller nation killing millions of innocent lives? People in high places in Washington D.C. and in the Pentagon have no conscience and fear not the true and living God.

My task is to bring and return God to China to China's 1.3 billion atheist, whose ancestors (of some of these people) were Hebrews sinocized and/or conscripted by Nimrod in ancient times.

I sent you a letter, on December 20, asking that you not to proceed with the sale of 6 billion dollars of arms to Taiwan, because such is illegal and it would lead to war and increased tensions between Taiwan and China. This is a time of peace and a good, upright, and wise (smart) President would not promote war, when peace can be had. When people can have their cake and eat it too, why would any one promote war?

China's royal family, Han-Chinese Imperial family, resides in America and would be happy to return to China to promote peace for China, for the whole Asian continent and greater world. Their paternal roots are Hebrew, a lost people and past apart from god while living in China, yet their hearts, today, are hearts of gold. They need your nation's help as they are not able to do this alone. Why is support and help for such a cause not forthcoming? Do you have something to hide and can not at this time promote peace? Is anyone or others coercing you? Do you have something to hide and are not telling the American people?

You need to listen to your own advice and talk with people and nations. Older people like myself have the answers and do harbor good and upright solutions for you to implement.

We, I and my family (clan), need your nation's help and cooperation. We are third to sixth generation Americans and all of us (about 300-600 people today) have lived our entire lives in exile, since 1871 or thereabouts.

I would like to see an upright and righteous China come about and permanently exist. I would like to see the same for America. Wouldn't every American? The family that I am from is called the Chou Dynasty (Zhou in pinyin and Jo in the English romanization of our family's Hebrew surname) and all of us are Christians today.

My family in China numbers around 40 to 60 million people. Quite enough to govern China effectively. My direction is to take China, an atheist nation, a former Hebrew nation, whose family patriarch was called Huang Di, a man of Hamite descent, into the 21st century and to usher in a new age of prosperity, Christian worship, and true peace.

According to the statistics in the 2009 Time Almanac 80 percent of the U.S. is Christian. We enjoy the blessings of God, prosperity, and his bounty today. According to the Time Almanac 80 percent of China, the reverse, is atheist and these people live in poverty, while the managing class, the same as in America and around the world, live in luxury.

If one was a Christian, one would be devoted to God. Such is a requirement and not merely saying that you are a Christian. In the Bible, Matthew 28:19, 20 Christ commanded his followers to "Go ... make disciples of people of all the nations ... "; related scriptures: 1 John 4:16; John 13:34, 35; Hebrews 13:1-3, 16, 24; Matthew 28:19, 20; that God's blessing is at hand and that Christians must gather his sheep.

My path in this modern century is just that and threefold:

1. To gather my family (Hebrews), people in China and Iraq, to make sure that they have and are able to hold on to God's word.
2. To govern China in the last days to insure that China will always be a good nation. This works towards America's best interest. To have a loyal and cooperative ally in China, one that holds to the same good principles as we likewise do. And I hope as China's Presidential hopeful, to network China with the U.S. In a fashion similar to the relationship that we see of the U.S. and Canada.
3. To see to an upright end to the Iraq War with a solution consistent with God's word and to see a cessation of American aggression and illegal activities in Asia and the Middle East.

How many people in this modern day Christian world are with me and in agreement with my endeavors above. Are you?

If your nation has come to the knowledge of God and now enjoys his bounty, shouldn't other nations be allowed to enjoy the same? Would all of the people that I am sending this letter to agree with this that Chinese, 1.3 billion people, should, likewise, enjoy God's bounty and blessings?

Since we are a Christian nation and China is atheist (many people in China's past were of Hebrew ancestry, paternal and part-Hebrew) shouldn't I as China's patriarchal father, emperor and king, see that China receives God's blessing?

I am hoping for God's approval and blessing and I am praying for God's love. I hope that I will have America's blessing for my Christian mission of bringing God (returning God) to China. I would very much like to network an upright Hebrew-Hamite China with an upright American-Christian nation. You can make this happen and make dreams into reality as President. In every nation around the world and in every family, you will find both good and bad people. When your nation ignores those who are good, your nation, now, is promoting those who are evil (evil by God's standards) and you are making the world, our world, a bit more dangerous for all people in which to live.

I seek our government's cooperation as well as the love of all Americans.

I hope that you will not (a) sell Taiwan, an illegal and rogue nation, military arms nor will you (b) try to undermine China by controlling and influencing Asian regional trade (Trans-Pacific partnership and steel tariffs) without China's knowledge or without securing China's input, partnership, participation, and/or approval.

Upright diplomacy builds friends, crookedness begets enemies. Which would a wise and upright leader choose?

Ever extend yourself to being open and honest with a host of other people? The bible says that in a multitude of counselors there is wisdom. By being closed, like the Bush administration, you will learn nothing. By being open to many points of view, you will gain and find true and good solutions.

Taiwan is an illegal and rogue state, yet a good example of democracy in Asia. She needs our protection, yet we must follow the law at each and every turn. With people becoming educated in China, a democracy is inevitable. Why not work with us, Chinese, rather than to arm a rogue state, illegally, in an effort to destroy China (a possible future very loyal Asian ally). This may be a good way, seemingly to some, of negating our mounting and unpayable debts to China, yet God exists and it is God's people (Hebrews) that you will be destroying in Iraq and China in the process. Saddam's family and mine.

Allow us to come to power, once again, and allow us to move our people towards God. For if you do not, then your nation will be living with the lies that you have created and the consequences you face with God in the last days of this earth as mentioned in the Book of Revelation.

The U.S. wields great power, sometimes unfairly, and can heavily handed bring about uncertainty and poverty to many nations intentionally and through very unfair criminal practices. All nations need things by which to survive. Fairness in trade policy and rights is among these things.

If your nation is short-sighted, looks at immediate and unfair gains over goodwill and Christian practices, if your nation seeks its own survival and the destruction of other nations, especially a nation where its king decides and wants to bring his people to God; if your nation causes harm to the people of China and to the people of other nations, then you will pay the price of your inequities at the hands of God's wrath in these final days.

But, one might say or quietly utter, "We know that we are already doomed, so we are now taking our chances and fighting for our survival apart from and even against God!" Well, let me say, God issues to each and every man his own measure of faith and those doing evil deeds will reap what they have sown. In the last days, we will reap the rewards that we have caused or brought about.

Good deeds will be rewarded and bad deeds, ungodly deeds, will receive punishment.

Arming an illegal state by the sale of arms and controlling China's regional trade by participation and the promotion of trade pacts and agreements without China's participation and approval will only do more harm to our cause and hurt our nation's image once again.

Why not work with China for peace and fairness in trade? Why not work with people and nations instead of against them?

You complained about the Bush administration, yet you continued Bush administration policies, on Iraq and war, when such can be ended. Are there no experts in the White House that you can not do the right things with respect to your own nation and with respect to other nations? Such is the reason for terrorism. If your nation ceases its illegal and unfair practices, and killings (murder committed under the color of the law and the U.S. Constitution), things like terrorism will end. Is your nation willing to be obedient to God and willing to sit down with your enemies to negotiate? Are you?

The Bush administration, of very wise men, were not, so why did you hire them to run your administration?

Good people will always be good. Evil people will always be evil. Should you not be open with your nation and do the same with the entire world?

I am a good and capable leader hoping for my time in China. Will the American government support this and gain a truly good partner and friend in China upon my return?

Lastly, but not of the least, may I say once again, I hope to bring God to China and to Iraq so that my family may once be able to know and worship the one and true god. It is the place of Hebrews to be doing this as history has deemed this of and to us. It is the obligation of man to worship God and so this is our family's calling. We are part-Hebrew and part-Hamite (Han-Chinese) in China and part-Hebrew and part-Arab in Iraq and in the Middle East. People of Yemen, many are terrorist, are of our family's blood too. Shouldn't they be given the chance to know the true god? (1) That is why I am here...to afford these people the possibility of life in God's new system of things. Will your nation of "true" Christians give me that opportunity? (2) And how about you? What are your true thoughts with regard to all of these things? More war and aggression illegally brought to other people's soil by our nation's will and (illegal and ill-conceived) initiatives?

In 1990, I successfully secured Saddam's consent to the withdrawal of his army from Kuwait, yet your newspapers did not publish this story, which allowed your nation and the Bush administration to illegally go to war with Iraq.

Knowing that this war is illegal as well as U.S. presence on Iraq's soil, would you still choose to continue the war? A 16 month withdrawal is, also, illegal as your nation's presence and further killing of Iraqi people is illegal. Why do you choose to do such things? Doesn't your conscience tell you differently? Are you legally President or would America have to fabricate your birth?

COME CLEAN and do the right things as cited above. And enjoy the love of the true God, a healthy and clean nation, good Christian allies, family, friends, and true Christian brothers.

Should the name Obama come to mean and be translated as "crooked"? You have a lot to prove and live up to. Please read, in the bare minimum, all of my past few letters out of the over 78 sent to you. Do good and not evil. Evil is a standard judged by God. Do good and God will protect you and it is he that will change your name to something very worthy and good. Please allow this to happen!

Contact me and meet with me in Washington D.C. or anywhere else. I can and want to help your nation. I, also, need your nation's help for my family's mission of going back to China and back to the Middle East. If your nation does not give it, then it will be God who will be moving this to occur.

Be blessed by your doing of good deeds, instead of being cursed.

I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Respectfully,

夏遠帝

Second-nephew of the late John Magoon, former president of Hawaiian Airlines, who is a descendant of Chun Afong, Hawaii's first Chinese millionaire (the Magoon, Ward, and Hustace families are wealthy kamaaina families descendants of Chun Afong and Hawaiian nobility); fourth-nephew of the late U.S. Senator Hiram L. 28th generation descendant of Tamucin (Genghis Khan).

90th generation descendant of China's patriarchal emperor Huang Di.

Three generations in my family have loyally worked at Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard. My maternal grandfather was a shipwright, my father was a radio operator, and I worked there as a military housing carpenter.

The thrust of my focus, may I repeat, is (1) on ending the Iraq War (immediately and through negotiated settlement) and seeing an end to our nation's aggression in the Middle East. (2) Returning to China to speak with the senior leadership. To tell them of our family's conversion to the Christian faith and to give them my and my family's observations on both good and bad aspects of America and the West. (3) To insure that China will always be a good and truly upright nation. (4) If desired, by the Chinese nation, to usher in a new age of reform. So China will be able to be a much better nation in the 21st century. I believe in God and in the goodness of man. Can there be a better man than I to lead the Chinese nation, especially during Obama's administration of the US and this modern day period?

Trying to be fair and honorable with everyone. Do good people ever win and will your nation ever support such a man? Even if only by your prayers to God.

Looking for our nation's Christian support, I remain.
