Dear President Obama,

I am a true friend. And the body of my letter is as follows. Can an illegally elected President govern this or any nation? Can a man who has been on the outsides of our nation know democracy and know what to do in every situation of his presidency? Does a man's past have any bearing on how he sees things and on the decisions that he makes?

Are you truly qualified for this position and should you be our president even if, assuming, your birth was in America?

In order to govern America effectively, one should be a native-born citizen. In your case, you are American or in the very least that's what your mother wanted and you did spend most of your life here as an American though you were not. Your White grandparents were mistaken about this country and we (my family) knew your White grandmother. As a teenager, your orientation has been as a rebel and outsider to our nation. As a adult, your friends were people who were against the system and you were taught to lie at an early age. Something which you practiced and became good at in your adult years.

Then came Larry Sinclair and you engaged in detestable homosexual conduct as a married man and as an Illinois State Senator. And throughout your entire life you have been hiding and/or keeping a very low profile, because you didn't want people to learn about your birth in Kenya and illegal status in this nation.

Congress didn't want to vet you and the press didn't also and you became our President in spite of your bad moral conduct and illegal status in our nation. Rumor has it that your mother was adopted by the Dunhams as there is no record of her birth. It is believed that she is from Lebanon and that you knowingly destroyed DNA evidence, thereby, by cremating your mother and grandmother and scattering their ashes at sea.

If I were a Black man, which I am not, I would think that I would be very proud of my Jewish, Shemite, or Lebanese roots and I would want to capitalize upon them by the keeping of family customs and traditions, especially in the worship of God, the true god, alive.

If you are illegal, which you certainly are, then you should be arrested and facing steep prison time and deportation for your major misrepresentations to our nation and before the world. You, at this time, from my understanding, hold British and Kenyan citizenship through your father and Indonesian citizenship, due to being adopted by your step-father. Kenya's people are very proud of you and your Kenyan grandmother and family would be very proud and happy to accept back a black man into their midst.

So, now being confronted with the truth, once again, what should you do?

Kill or secretly order the murders of Americans who eventually discover your truths? Do things to discredit them and their testimony? The Bible says that falsehoods and false testimony against people are wrong. Would you or your supporters now be willing to render falsehoods and to slander other people's names?

Would you build your economic base or political power, pay people and organizations bribes so that others will do your bidding for you, and without them ever having to tell or inform you?

Or do you think that you can continue on running this country as if nothing had happened and that no one in this nation will seek to indict you?

We are a nation of laws and we are NOT a lawless nation. If one man can violate the law, then we all can violate the law at each and every turn with impunity. No nation can exist and operate for any real length of time in that fashion.

Would you want us to think that you are someone very special that an exception can and should be made for you and only you? Are you the only one in this nation who can and should run this nation? And no one else. Is there no one capable of governing and you are the exception?

Can a man who all of his life has lived in the shadows (1) know America and (2) can provide the leadership that this country needs?

Are you truly doing your best to end the Iraq War?

Have you and people in your administration been honest with the press and allowed them full access to your administration and to everything that you and your administration do, have done, and are planning to do?

Are you honest and upright? Do you allow for sunshine in your government, our government, in its administration of our nation's affairs and laws?

Then, too, there is the issue of God who is real and Bible prophesy says that a man will come along, someone very very lawless, and he shall lead the entire world on Satan's behalf. That he will darken the skies and not allow God's truths to surface. That he will war, even with Jesus, and be known as the anti-Christ. That this man will battle against God, himself, as Nimrod once did. And if you are not careful, you will eventually become this very evil man.

No person in recorded history has been as evil, illegal, and ungodly as you. Are you a good man as judged by God's holy standards? Do you want to be and are you willing to try? Or would you rather be on the side of Satan and blacken the world's skies, so that the beautiful truths of God's word will never surface on this earth ever again? This is truth. This is Bible prophesy. Would you like to be this evil man who will eventually bring this about?

GOD IS KIND AND GOD IS FORGIVING. And this is the way out of your mess:

1. Try to do good things, truly good things, as our illegally elected President. Examine what you can do at this time and act to fulfill this good mission and then make a public admission of your sins, confess them to God, and withdraw as President. According to the Bible, by doing such you will save your soul (your very life) before God.

2. The Iraq War is illegal and criminal. We, our nation, have killed two million innocent people under the color of the law, due to the bad and illegal decisions of the Bush administration and U.S. Congress. Innocent people, foreigners, died as we claimed that Saddam had weapons of mass destruction. I was the negotiator, so I do know the truth and real facts behind this war and the fact that our nation's newsmedia and the world's press has not published this story. Our nation is a nation of murderers. Yet, not all Americans are like this. You should and can declare an immediate end to the Iraq War independently of your (actually Bush's) administration. If you continue the war, then blood guilt, as God, himself, had said in his book, the Holy Bible, falls upon your hands and you shall suffer for your part in this great crime against humanity.

3. Recognize me and allow me to leave this country with my good name and honor in tact and I will Christianize the entire nation of China and will make China into the greatest democracy that this world has ever seen. The alternative to that is to keep China in poverty and religious darkness and to depopulate China by war. The next war will be a nuclear war as Iran will also possess a nuclear capacity as you did nothing to stop them in the very beginning of your term, when you had the opportunity to do so. Meet with me and get a better picture about this war and discover what remedies are possible for our nation.

Can an illegal U.S. President govern this nation? I would strongly and absolutely say "No!", yet I would not close the door to any upright possibility of good things happening in the closing years of your administration.

Decisions that a legal President would make, you did not make and you did not allow for openness and sunshine to allow the people of our nation to be able to see and to examine your and your administration's many decisions for our nation's future and to possibly our nation's eventual demise.

Concluding remarks:

You should do all of the above as they are doable and forget about and forgo your program of health care for America. Your predecessor will pass that legislation, as many people in this nation do not like you and your programs will never be approved no matter how good it is. People hate you, because of your ugly and fraudulent actions as a usurper of the U.S. Constitution and for your illegal actions putting yourself (as a god) above the law. To be facing jail time and to receive God's blessing and forgiveness is better, than continuing on in a lie.

It is wrong to say "I am it! I am he, who will remedy this nation as you people DO NOT know how and can not govern yourselves!", "I am the change!", "I am the only one who will and can remedy this nation of its ills!" Said openly or even quietly, if not only to yourself!

People just don't like you! To continue on and to fulfill Bible prophesy is a very evil thing to do. To become this anti-Christ done merely to escape judgment will not put yourself in a better position, but it will make your standing before God and standing before our nation that much worst. And you will pay a greater price and you, yourself, will suffer greatly for this. So, please do the right things before God. Your situation CAN get a lot worst, if you continue!

I am sure that many people will agree with the above solution of your voluntary resignation, rather than to see you indicted.

Respectfully,

No. 57b to President Obama

...with no reply to all of my letters in return, not even a receipt acknowledgment. Should and can an illegal President govern this nation and the world? Is he smart enough, wise enough, experienced enough to make good decisions for the world's 6 billion people. Is our American president a phony, fraud, and a usurper of the U.S. Constitution? Does this nation care? Does the entire world? And does the legality of your office matter? Are we a good nation of people or evil nation that should be exterminated to the very last man, as the Weathermen, an underground political protest organization, had said, implied or claimed. Just what kind of man are you anyway Mr. Obama? Are you accountable for the decisions that you make and is there sunshine in your administration, so that there are checks and balances in the things that you do?
