Dear Sirs,

This morning finds me eating at McDonald's, once again. It is, also, the year of the Dragon, an Imperial Chinese-designated year. Somehow, life finds me living, unemployed, homeless, and disabled, in the United States of America, with no one caring about me and my welfare. I like your table mats, which highlight and celebrates my family's Chinese heritage and the Year of the Dragon. Unfortunately, I am destitute, without any means and without a place to call home.

McDonald's is my favorite place to eat, as I am poor, homeless, unemployed, and disabled; without very much means. Yet, I am an international celebrity; a very important person.

I hope to return to China, if the government of China is willing to take me and my family back.

Sincerely yours in closing,

H.I.M. Yao Sui
